Experience the Riviera's Allure

In Juan-les-Pins, you'll visit the iconic Villa Saint-Louis, where Fitzgerald and his wife Zelda stayed during their time in Provence. The villa's lush gardens and panoramic views of the Mediterranean Sea provide a glimpse into the luxurious lifestyle they enjoyed. Continue on to Antibes and Cannes, where you'll explore the vibrant streets and glamorous beaches that served as backdrops for Fitzgerald's stories.

Discover the Serene Countryside

Venture beyond the bustling Riviera into the tranquil countryside of Provence. Visit the picturesque village of Tourrettes-sur-Loup, where Fitzgerald and Zelda sought refuge during the turbulent years of the Great Depression. Wander through its charming streets, admire the medieval architecture, and soak in the serenity that inspired some of Fitzgerald's most poignant writing.

Immerse Yourself in Literary Masterpieces

Throughout your journey, you'll have the opportunity to delve into Fitzgerald's works. Read excerpts from "The Great Gatsby" and "Tender is the Night" as you visit the places that inspired their creation. Attend literary discussions led by renowned scholars and authors who will provide insights into Fitzgerald's writing process and the enduring legacy of his literature.
