At first, Emily and Jake can't stand each other. They're constantly bickering and trying to one-up each other. But as they spend more time together, they start to see a different side to each other. Emily realizes that Jake isn't as arrogant as she thought he was, and Jake realizes that Emily isn't as uptight as he thought she was.

Soon, their bickering turns to flirting, and their animosity turns to attraction. But can two people who have been enemies for so long really find love with each other?

First Comes Love is a witty and charming romantic comedy that will make you laugh, cry, and fall in love all over again. With its lovable characters and heartwarming story, First Comes Love is a must-read for fans of romantic comedies.
