Alice has always been a good girl. She's never broken the law, she's never hurt anyone, and she's always been there for her friends and family. But as she digs deeper into her own past, she discovers a hidden darkness within herself. A darkness that could have led her to commit a terrible crime.

As Alice's memories return, so too do the secrets that she's been keeping from herself. Secrets that could destroy her life—and the lives of those she loves.
