Excerpt

"I'm not going to hurt you," Jake said, his voice low and husky. Piper looked into his eyes and saw a flicker of something that made her heart skip a beat. "I know," she whispered. Jake leaned down and kissed her, his lips soft and gentle. Piper melted into the kiss, forgetting for a moment about the cameras and the crew. When he finally pulled away, Piper stared at him, breathless. "I can't," she said.

Jake smiled. "I'll wait," he said.
