Journey into History and Culture

Instructions Between Takeoff and Landing serves as a time capsule, preserving the rich history and diverse culture of Akron for generations to come. The poems evoke the city's industrial heritage, the struggles of its people during economic downturns, and the resilience that has shaped its identity. They celebrate the contributions of its immigrants, artists, and community leaders who have left an indelible mark on Akron's vibrant tapestry.

The scent of Akron's past lingers in the lines about its rubber factories.

Voices of Akron's Poets

Instructions Between Takeoff and Landing showcases the voices of Akron's most celebrated poets, such as Pulitzer Prize winner Jane Hirshfield and former U.S. Poet Laureate Billy Collins. Their poems offer profound insights into the human experience, the complexities of urban life, and the enduring power of the human spirit.

Themes of Identity and Community

Throughout the collection, the theme of identity and community permeates the verses. The poets explore the diverse experiences of Akron's residents, their struggles, their triumphs, and their shared sense of belonging. They paint a portrait of a city where individuality thrives amidst a deep connection to the collective.

The heartbeat of Akron's community echoes through the poems.

A Literary Invitation

Instructions Between Takeoff and Landing is an invitation to experience Akron through the eyes of its poets. It is a journey that will captivate, inspire, and leave a lasting impression on readers. It is a testament to the power of poetry to illuminate the beauty and complexity of human existence and to forge a deeper understanding of the places we call home.
