The collection is divided into three sections: "The Blue Buick," "After," and "Mystery and Velocity." The first section explores the theme of nature, and it features poems about animals, plants, and the natural world. The second section deals with the theme of loss, and it includes poems about grief, death, and impermanence. The third section explores the theme of the human condition, and it features poems about love, identity, and the search for meaning.

Hirshfield's poems are characterized by their use of vivid imagery, precise language, and thoughtful insights. She is a master of the poetic form, and her poems are a joy to read. The Blue Buick: New and Selected Poems is a must-read for any fan of poetry.
