Unleash the Spirit of the Dead with the Guitar Anthology

For over five decades, the Grateful Dead mesmerized audiences worldwide with their eclectic blend of rock, folk, blues, and psychedelic music. At the heart of their sound was the interplay of their masterful guitarists: Jerry Garcia, Bob Weir, Phil Lesh, and Brent Mydland.

The Grateful Dead Guitar Anthology is the definitive collection of their guitar artistry. This meticulously crafted book presents an unprecedented look into the techniques, styles, and influences that shaped their legendary performances.

Dive into the Heart of the Dead's Guitar Magic

Inside the anthology, you'll find:

- An in-depth exploration of Garcia's signature guitar style, from his lightning-fast solos to his evocative slide work.
- A comprehensive analysis of Weir's rhythm guitar playing, showcasing his infectious grooves and intricate chord voicings.
- An examination of Lesh's thunderous basslines, which provided the rhythmic foundation for the band's explorations.
- A detailed look at Mydland's contributions to the Dead's keyboard-drenched sound, featuring his signature Hammond B3 organ solos.
