Synopsis

In the frozen wilderness of Antarctica, a research team is stranded after a devastating blizzard. With dwindling supplies and no way to contact the outside world, they must fight for survival against the unforgiving elements and a mysterious killer who stalks them from the shadows.

When one of the team members is found dead, the survivors realize that they are not alone. A cunning and ruthless killer is among them, and they must uncover the truth before it's too late.

As the body count rises and the tension mounts, the survivors must confront their own fears and secrets. They must learn to trust each other and work together if they want to survive.
